ABOUT

Kenna Saunders, known professionally as KennaDee, is an American singer and songwriter. Originally a member of a "The Measure", a rock & blues band out of New York, she broke off and started a successful solo career.

KennaDee performs her own music as well as unique takes on popular songs...incorporating elements of pop/rock and soul.

In late 2019, KennaDee released her debut album, "Gypsy Soul", which was featured on NPR's "Common Threads" as well as CNYLive! and earned her a SAMMY nomination.

KennaDee books quite a few private parties when not performing at local bars and restaurants. She is available for clubs, private parties, corporate events, weddings and festivals.

All sound equipment and lighting are provided at every show, producing a good clean sound that her customers love. She is committed to prompt setup and removal of gear, a great sound, and a real need to entertain the audience at a high level.

As an added benefit...she does her own marketing and works hard with her customers to heavily promote her shows in order to achieve the best outcome. She is a professional musician that takes pride in putting customers first by understanding the nature of their setting, the needs of the facility, and promoting the interests of the audience
